SECTION 1.

(a) The 6th Avenue pedestrian walkway that spans 6th Avenue North from the legislative plaza to the Tennessee Performing Arts Center in downtown Nashville shall be named the “Tennessee Woman Suffrage Monument Bridge” to honor this state’s pivotal contribution in achieving women’s suffrage, with Tennessee’s ratification being the final vote needed to add the Nineteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

(b) The provisions of this act shall not be construed to be an appropriation of funds, and no funds shall be obligated or expended pursuant to this act unless such funds are specifically appropriated by the general appropriations act.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon becoming a law, the public welfare requiring it.
